

Title: Introduction to Physics

Newton's Laws of Motion:

1. First Law: An object remains at rest or in uniform motion unless acted upon by an external force.
2. Second Law: Force equals mass times acceleration ($F = ma$).
3. Third Law: For every action, there is an equal and opposite reaction.

Simple tips for studying: Break down complex concepts into smaller parts, use analogies, and practice problem-solving.